

St. Conrad of Parzham

It was God's will that I should leave everything that was near and dear to me.

I thank Him for having called me to religious life where I have found such peace and joy as I could never have found in the world.

My plan of life is chiefly this: to love and suffer, always meditating upon, adoring and admiring God's unspeakable love for his lowliest creatures.

Feast Day: April 21, 2018

*b. December 22, 1818
d. April 21, 1894*

St. Conrad of Parzham

It was God's will that I should leave everything that was near and dear to me.

I thank Him for having called me to religious life where I have found such peace and joy as I could never have found in the world.

My plan of life is chiefly this: to love and suffer, always meditating upon, adoring and admiring God's unspeakable love for his lowliest creatures.

Feast Day: April 21, 2018

*b. December 22, 1818
d. April 21, 1894*

St. Conrad of Parzham

It was God's will that I should leave everything that was near and dear to me.

I thank Him for having called me to religious life where I have found such peace and joy as I could never have found in the world.

My plan of life is chiefly this: to love and suffer, always meditating upon, adoring and admiring God's unspeakable love for his lowliest creatures.

Feast Day: April 21, 2018

*b. December 22, 1818
d. April 21, 1894*